Summary

I'm a passionate Computer System Technician – Networking student at St. Clair College, aspiring to become a cybersecurity expert. I'm driven by continuous learning, problem-solving, and staying updated in the tech landscape.

I have hands-on experience in networking, logistics, and customer service, having worked with platforms like DoorDash, Uber, and Zomato, and as a Marketing Manager at Nalanda Edification.

Fluent in English, Malayalam, and Tamil, I value time management, adaptability, and respect. I'm eager to grow my skills, contribute to the cybersecurity field, and make a meaningful impact.
